New Series of the Congressional Glebe and Appendix.

TO BE STEREOTYPED. The undersigned originated the mode of journalizing the proceedings of Congress, which presented them entire. Their put lication was the first and only one that gave each successive step in every measure in both branches of Congress; a brief of all the debates; every important vote; and an append x, including at full length all the revised speeches delivered during the session. The work thus conducted he me states and the Representatives from every section of the Union bring with them into Congress a knowledge of the feelings, sentiments, and interests of their several constituencies. Public opinion and the public information, as it exists among these they represent, are embodied by them: and in the crucible of Congress the wisdom of our times is brought to its test, and is there concentrated, in directing to move in co-operation.
